CHUCK NOLL

Head Coach

Chuck Noll is in his fifth season as the Steeler head coach and during this relatively short period of time has built the team into one of the best in the National Football League.

In 1972 the Steelers compiled the second best record in the league, winning 11 games and losing just three. It brought them the AFC's Central Division crown and a place in the post-season playoffs in which they were beaten by the Super Bowl champion Miami Dolphins in the AFC title game after defeating Oakland in the opening playoff contest.

This performance earned Noll the UPI American Football Conference Coach of the Year award. It was an honor predicted for the 41-year old Cleveland native when he accepted the Steeler job in 1969.

At that time, the Pittsburgh situation was not a bright one and it was going to take a well-organized man with patience to turn things around. Noll was that man. He set his sights high. His only goal was a championship football team.

To do this, he felt a pro team should be constructed with young players acquired through the annual draft of college players. He methodically utilized the draft to stockpile talented young people. When necessary he became an astute trader with an occasional deal but for the most part he had to exercise patience while his young squad was growing up.

This process was not designed to be an instant success, and it wasn't. But after each season it was evident that Noll was making progress. Behind Chuck's leadership, the Steeler record was better each year than that of the previous one. At no point did he waiver or deviate from his original plan. As a result, today the Steelers are not only a good football team but also a very young one. Another major factor in Noll's success is his ability to communicate with his players and to establish excellent rapport with them. It is a quality which the players recognize and appreciate and has resulted in them being more productive as a team and individually.

Noll's preparation for a head coaching job in the NFL followed the normal course of most of the present coaches. He made his way through the ranks as a player and spent his apprenticeship as an assistant coach. In each of these roles he had been a success and a winner.

After completing his college education at the University of Dayton where he became the football captain while playing offensive tackle and linebacker, Cleveland made him its 21st draft choice in 1951. For the first four years of his playing career he was an offensive guard but an injury to another player resulted in Coach Paul Brown switching Chuck to linebacker for the final three seasons of his active career. During his days with the Browns, they won five Eastern Conference titles and went on to win two NFL championships.

Chuck retired as a player at the young age of 27 to go into coaching. When a job at Dayton didn't materialize, he joined the Los Angeles (now San Diego) Chargers of the newly-born American Football League in 1960. Working under the brilliant Sid Gillman, he became the head defensive coach for a team that won five division titles and two league championships in six years.

In 1966, Noll returned to the NFL with the Baltimore Colts. He served as Don Shula's defensive backfield coach for three seasons. During this period the Colts lost just seven regular season games and won the NFL title in 1968 only to lose in the Super Bowl to the New York Jets.

With this background of playing and coaching experience, it was the following season that Chuck Noll came to Pittsburgh to lead the Steelers out of the woods. While he has not accomplished everything he set out to do, there is hardly any doubt that it won't be long until he does.

Chuck's interests outside of football are not what you would expect of a football coach. He is a classical music buff, somewhat of a gourmet cook, a wine connoisseur and for recreation enjoys deep sea diving.

He and his wife Marianne have a son, Chris, who is 14. The Nolls live in the Pittsburgh suburb of Upper St. Clair.

BUD CARSON

Defensive Coordinator

Prior to the 1972 season it was generally agreed that the weak link of the Pittsburgh defense was the secondary. Bud Carson took over this area in his first season of pro coaching and quickly turned a weakness into a strength as the Steelers led the NFL in interceptions and ranked high in all areas of defense against the pass.

But Carson's involvement went even further than the secondary. As the defensive coordinator, a position he assumed unofficially during the season, he was responsible for the entire defense.

Bud came to Pittsburgh last year with a reputation as the possessor of an outstanding football mind. It was one which was well-earned through 14 years of college coaching after spending two seasons as a high school coach.

A native of Freeport, Pa., the 42-year old Carson started his coaching career at Scottdale (Pa.) High where he compiled a two year record of 16-2-1. He returned to North Carolina, his alma mater, and he spent seven years as an assistant under Jim Tatum and Jim Hickey. In 1965 he went to South Carolina as the defensive coordinator.

The following year he accepted the same position at Georgia Tech. When Bobby Dodd retired, Carson took over the head coaching job and in five seasons recorded a 27-27 mark which included Sun and Peach Bowl appearances in his last two seasons.

As a player, Bud also made his mark on defense. He was an All Southern Conference defensive back for three years after an outstanding career as an all-around athlete in high school.

BOB FRY

Offensive Line Coach

An area of consistent improvement during Chuck Noll's term as the Steeler head coach has been the offensive line which is handled by Bob Fry, who also shares responsibility for the team's running game.

When Fry arrived in Pittsburgh the offensive line was considered a Steeler weakness. Now it is a strong point as evidenced by the success the team had on the ground last year when a new team rushing record was set.

Fry's forte is patience and since his job has been that of a teacher it is a quality that has helped him considerably.

This is Bob's 21st consecutive season in the NFL. He has served as a player, administrator and coach.

As a player, he was a starting offensive tackle from 1953-59 with the Los Angeles Rams, a term which was interrupted by a two-year Army hitch. He was one of the original members of the Dallas Cowboys in 1960 and completed his playing career there in 1964.

In 1965 Fry became a scout with Atlanta. The following year he was the Assistant Director of Player Personnel. While in this position, Coach Norb Hecker added him to his staff in 1967 as an offensive line coach where he remained until coming to Pittsburgh.

At Kentucky he played on Bear Bryant's great teams in the early fifties. He was a starting member of the winning Sugar and Cotton Bowl teams.

Bob is a native of Cincinnati. He will be 43 during the season. He and his wife Vonnie have three daughters, Alicia, Deanna and Monica, and three sons, Bryan, Erick and Matthew.

DICK HOAK

Offensive Backfield Coach

In his pro coaching debut last season Dick Hoak used the same formula he successfully followed as a player. His outstanding characteristics then were his determination and willingness to work hard and he just applied those to his new job.

As the Steeler offensive backfield coach, he displayed an ability to teach and his accomplishments were significant. He was very instrumental in the Steelers' overall offensive success.

Hoak played ten years of pro football and was one of the best players to ever perform for the Steelers. He gained 3,965 yards rushing which places him in second place among the team's all-time leaders in this department. Three times he led the team in rushing. He was also an excellent passer and receiver.

His best season was in 1968 when he totaled 858 yards to rank fourth in rushing in the NFL. In that same season, he had the best game of his career, running for 166 yards, including a 77-yard scoring run which was the longest in the league that year. He was named to the Sporting News All Eastern Conference 1st team, selected to play in the Pro Bowl and won the Dapper Dan Award as Pittsburgh's outstanding sports figure.

Hoak came to Pittsburgh in 1961 as a seventh round draft choice. At Penn State he had played both half-back and quarterback. At the latter position, he guided his team to two straight Liberty Bowl victories.

Dick is a native of Jeanette and will be 34 in December. He and his wife Lynn have two daughters, Kelly and Katie, and one son, Richard.

BABE PARILLI

Quarterback Coach

As the Steeler Quarterback Coach, Babe Parilli contributes the experience gained from 16 years as an active pro player with six teams.

This is his third season with the Steelers and his basic responsibilities have not changed. He works exclusively with the quarterbacks because the important role they play in the fortunes of a pro football team necessitate the attention of one coach.

A native of Rochester, Pa., Parilli went to the University of Kentucky and became the school's first All American in 1950 and 1951 under Bear Bryant. He led his team to Sugar and Cotton Bowl victories and capped his college career by winning the Most Valuable Player award in the 1952 College All Star game.

He was Green Bay's first draft choice in 1952 and played two seasons there before going into the Army. While in the service he was traded to Cleveland. In 1957 another trade sent him back to Green Bay. In 1959 he played with Ottawa in the CFL.

When the American League was formed in 1960, Babe signed with Oakland. The next year he went to Boston where he enjoyed his greatest success as a pro. In 1963 he led the Patriots to the division title and the following year was named the AFL's MVP. He completed his active career with the Jets, playing on their winning 1968 Super Bowl team.

Parilli is the 14th leading passer of all-time in pro football with 22,681 yards on 1,552 completions on 3,330 attempts for 178 TDs.

Babe is 43 years old. He and his wife Priscilla have a son, Vance.

GEORGE PERLES
Defensive Line Coach

A big factor in the Steelers' recent success has been the defensive line. Under George Perles, who is now in his second season as the defensive line coach, the front four has developed into one of the best in the NFL. In 1972 it ranked at or near the top in all major defensive categories.

The strong performance of the defensive line kept intact Perles' record and reputation. He came into pro football with an excellent background and a history of coaching successes. His work in his pro debut enhanced that reputation.

A native of Detroit, Perles was a defensive specialist for five years under Duffy Daugherty at Michigan State. During this period George handled, at different times, the defensive line and defensive backs.

George joined the Spartans after two years as the defensive coordinator at the University of Dayton.

His coaching career began in high school football. He spent a year at St. Rita High in Chicago before returning to his home town in the same capacity. After three winning seasons at St. Ambrose High, George moved into college football.

George spent two years in the service after high school before enrolling at Michigan State. After earning a starting position as a two-way tackle in his sophomore season, a knee injury later that year prematurely ended his playing career. He remained in school to graduate and then took another year to study for his master's degree in Physical Education.

George is 39 years old. He and his wife Sally have a daughter, Kathleen, and three sons, Terrence, John and Patrick.

BOB WIDENHOFER
Defensive Assistant

The newest and youngest member of the Steeler coaching staff is Bob (Woody) Widenhofer. He is an assistant defensive coach with varying responsibilities and duties which also include working with the special teams.

At 30 years of age, Woody is already in his ninth year of coaching and his rise through the ranks has been a quick one.

Widenhofer began his coaching career in 1965 at Holy Redeemer High School and spent two years there before moving on to Nativity High for two seasons. Both assignments were in his hometown of Detroit.

He went into college coaching in 1969 when he became one of Duffy Daugherty's assistants at Michigan State. While at State Woody earned his master's degree in physical education.

In 1971 he accepted a position as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for Eastern Michigan. His team went undefeated and ranked third nationally among the college-division teams.

His success at Eastern Michigan earned him a return trip to the Big 10. He spent last season as the linebacker coach at Minnesota under Cal Stoll.

After an outstanding high school athletic career in Detroit, Widenhofer went to Missouri where he lettered as a linebacker for two seasons under Dan Devine. He missed his senior year because of a broken leg.

A native of Butler, Pa., Woody moved with his family to Detroit when he was ten years old. He and his wife Sherrill have two daughters, Kimberly and Stacy.

LIONEL TAYLOR
Receiver Coach

In the four years he has been with the Steelers, Lionel Taylor has become an outstanding coach in his first full-time assignment in this capacity. As the receiver coach, he handles the wide receivers, tight ends and has responsibilities which also involve the passing phase of the Pittsburgh offense.

When Taylor joined the staff in 1970, all of his receivers with the exception of one were rookies and this situation required the steady hand he provided.

Lionel's ability to develop young talent is a carryover from his days as a player. He had to struggle just to make it in pro football and then developed his talents to become one of the best receivers of all time.

He started his pro playing career with the Chicago Bears in 1959. When the AFL was formed in 1960 he joined Denver. While there he perfected his patterns and techniques and led the league in receiving four of its first five years. In 1961 he became the first player in pro history to catch 100 passes in a season.

In seven seasons with Denver and two with Houston, Taylor made 567 receptions and still ranks as the third all time leading receiver in pro football. He still holds the AFL records for most passes caught in a single game (13) and most times leading the league (5) in receiving.

Lionel was born 37 years ago in Kansas City, Missouri but grew up in Accoville, W. Va. He was an All Frontier Conference flanker at New Mexico Highlands where he also lettered in basketball and track.

Lionel and his wife Lorcencita have two daughters, Loretta and LaVern.

PAUL URAM
Flexibility Coach

Pro football is a game of specialization and nothing illustrates this better than the presence of Paul Uram on the Steeler coaching staff. He is the team's Flexibility Coach and, as such, is the first man to hold this position on a permanent basis with any one team.

More than anyone else in athletics, Paul has revolutionized the traditional calisthenics long associated with the preparation of athletes in all sports prior to participating in a practice or a game.

The Butler, Pa. native has replaced calisthenics with an extensive flexibility program which emphasizes the stretching of muscles rather than the quick bouncing movements of the conventional calisthenics.

It is a concept which has made Uram a widely-sought man by teams in all sports. He has worked with ten of the 26 NFL teams and has aided several teams in other sports.

Much of Paul's knowledge in this field was gained from the sport of gymnastics where, as a participant and coach, he had a chance to closely observe a sport in which it is essential for a performer to be totally prepared prior to competing.

At Slippery Rock College, Uram was a fine football player and trackman. In gymnastics, he won the National Sokol Junior and Senior championships in the early fifties. His accomplishments have earned him places in the Western Pennsylvania and Butler Halls of Fame.

His coaching experiences on the high school level have been in football, basketball and track as well as gymnastics. He presents

Paul and his wife Helen have one son, Ron.

LOU RIECKE

Strength Coach

Chuck Noll's decision to institute a strength program three years ago was a tailor-made one for Lou Riecke. He was an expert but had no place to go. Since the field was so limited, his only hope was for someone to create a position.

While the Steelers were not the first team to establish a strength and weight program, by doing so relatively early they were able to secure the services of a man with outstanding credentials.

Even though it is a program in which you cannot always evaluate the results, there is no doubt that Riecke has made a significant contribution. As a group the Steeler players are now stronger and better conditioned. The result, of course, is better football players.

During training camp, the 46-year old Riecke works with each player on a daily basis. Once the regular season is in progress the players work on the weights on a reduced schedule.

Lou's experience and background are closely related to his specialized position. He has been lifting weights for most of his life and, at the same time, has studied his field on both a formal and informal basis.

At LSU he won three NCAA weightlifting titles while also lettering in track. After college he continued competing and won three national YMCA championships. He represented the United States at two world championships and in the 1964 Olympics in Tokyo. He still holds two national records.

While at LSU, Lou majored in zoology and chemistry. He then attended the university's medical school for two years.

Lou and his wife Enid have four daughters, Cindy, Ginger, Vicki and Lee.

RALPH BERLIN

Trainer

Now in his sixth season with the Steelers, Ralph holds a Masters' Degree in Health and Safety and a BS in Physical Education. He played football at Iowa State and started there as a trainer. He also was at DePauw and Kentucky and had prior pro experience with St. Louis.

TONY PARISI

Equipment Manager

Tony joined the Steelers in 1965 after a career in hockey as a player and a trainer. He is responsible for the purchasing, care and reconditioning of all of the Steeler equipment.

JACK HART

Field Manager

Jack has been with the Steelers continuously since 1946. During this period he has served in many capacities. He presently is in charge of the playing fields at the St. Vincent training camp and Three Rivers.

AFC Playoff Game

Pittsburgh 13, Oakland 7

Dec. 23 at Pittsburgh, 50,350

Two unusual plays, one perhaps the oddest—and certainly the most controversial—in the long history of professional football, provided most of the offense in the final two minutes of what had been a tension-filled defensive struggle. Field goals of 18 and 20 yards by Roy Gerela had given Pittsburgh a 6-0 lead. QB Ken Stabler erased it as he scrambled 30 yards on a broken play to put Oakland in front with one minute and 13 seconds remaining. Down to their last play, the Steelers were 60 yards from the Oakland goal when rookie Franco Harris made an incredible shoe-top catch of a ricocheted pass and ran 42 yards for the TD. The dispute on the game-winning play centered on whether the flight of the ball was altered by the contact of Oakland's Jack Tatum or the Steelers' John Fuqua.

AFC Championship Game

Miami 21, Pittsburgh 17

Dec. 31 at Pittsburgh, 50,350

The Steelers stumbled on the last step to a Super Bowl berth when QB Bob Griese rallied the unbeaten Miami Dolphins. Actually, the outcome may have been determined on a trick play. With the Steelers leading 7-0 by virtue of a TD the first time they had the ball, Larry Seiple ran 37 yards on a fake punt deep into Pittsburgh territory. The play took away the Steelers' early momentum and led to the Dolphins tying score. After a field goal early in the third quarter gave Pittsburgh its last lead, Griese took over from Earl Morrall and drove his team 80 yards for the go-ahead TD. A blocked field goal attempt paved the way for Miami's third TD. Terry Bradshaw made it necessary as he returned to the game after suffering a first quarter head injury. He completed four straight passes for 71 yards to pull his team within four points, but two interceptions ended Pittsburgh's cinderella season.
